
ISBN: 978-1-80447-243-9
Paperback • 288pp • £9.99
THEMA: FFD, FFC, FFK 198 x 129 mm
22ND APRIL 2027
WORLD ENGLISH

FOUR DAYS' WONDER

AN ABSENT-MINDED MURDER-MYSTERY

A.A. MILNE

- A comedic triumph in the vein of Wodehouse from one of Britain's best-loved writers.
- A comedic 'cozy crime' classic novel that features an amateur sleuth on the run.
- A timely reissue to appeal to the uptick in interest in armchair detectives.
- Published to coincide with much of Milne's work entering the public domain – a year that will see renewed interest in his oeuvre.
- A neglected novel that deserves a reissue.

When, on a fine June morning not so long ago, Jenny Windell let herself in with her latch-key at Auburn Lodge… she was surprised to see the body of her Aunt Jane lying on a rug by the open door.

Our scene is set when Jenny Windell – a murder-mystery-obsessed eighteen-year-old – wanders into her childhood home one day and discovers the body of her Aunt Jane on the floor. Armed with a library of knowledge of murders fictitious, she is convinced that discovering the body means she will inevitably be blamed, so she tampers with the evidence and takes flight. What transpires only her favourite authors could imagine, while the clumsy detective tries to make sense of the puzzle.

Beloved for his enchanting children's stories, Milne was as well known in his lifetime for his novels and plays, suffused with spirit and humour in the vein of his contemporary Wodehouse. A jolly caper and satirical joy, this absent-minded murder mystery is overdue a new inspection.

'The greatest fun.' SUNDAY TIMES

'Entirely delightful and brilliant.' TLS

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

A.A. Milne (Alan Alexander, 1882–1956) was an author, playwright and soldier. Best remembered today for his tales about Winnie-the-Pooh, before his breakthrough in children's books he was best known as a playwright, and he was also a successful novelist and short-story writer. In addition to his fiction he wrote poetry (for adults and children), and he published extensively on the subjects of war and peace.

RENARD PRESS LTD, 124 City Road, London EC1V 2NX
info@renardpress.com • 020 8050 2928
WWW.RENARDPRESS.COM
Registered company number: 12559643

TRADE SALES
Signature Book Representation (UK) Limited
Tel: 0845 862 1730
sales@signaturebooksuk.com

DISTRIBUTION
Central Books Ltd
Tel: 020 8525 8800
orders@centralbooks.com