RENARD PRESS PRODUCES 'CHRISTMAS CARD CLASSIC' FOR THREE PEAS, A REFUGEE CHARITY

- A new classic title from Renard Press, The Burglar's Christmas by Willa Cather.
- A beautiful hand-bound paperback with William Morris-inspired design
- 25% of the RRP goes straight to Three Peas, a small charity for refugees.

Renard Press is thrilled to announce the release today of a 'Christmas Card Classic', Willa Cather's The Burglar's Christmas. The idea behind the Christmas Card Classic is: In this rather bleak year, instead of a Christmas card, why not send a book? 25% of the RRP goes to the Three Peas. (Available exclusively via our website: <https://renardpress.com/books/the-burglars-christmas/>.)

In a nutshell, Three Peas is a small charity supporting people who have had to flee war and/or persecution and who are seeking refuge and/or asylum in Europe. They are mostly active in Greece. They financially support a housing programme on Lesbos, a community centre in Sindos near Thessaloniki, a sports centre in Athens and NGOs' emergency interventions in Thessaloniki, Lesbos and Samos. As well as the above they regularly support food and medical care providers.

Synopsis:

First published in 1896, The Burglar's Christmas is a short story by the great American writer Willa Cather. Set in Chicago on a cold Christmas Eve, the down-and-out Crawford learns the value of forgiveness.
