FLAGEY IN AUTUMN

SIMON MUNDY

- The first in an anticipated series set in Europe's capital.
- From the pen of an acclaimed writer.
- An important backlist title from Hay Press, now an imprint of Renard Press.

A café in Brussels that puts people at their ease – artists with European politicians, their assistants and tousled intellectuals with bar staff, twenty-somethings in need of a job with thirty-somethings who have one.

Flagey is a comedy of manners that smiles refreshingly at Europe's capital, relaxed and true to its context. Love and politics raise their heads and generally get smacked for the trouble. The Place Flagey is really there. So perhaps are some of those you will meet inside.

'Mundy can be cheeky, he can be rueful, but he is always passionate.' (on By Fax to Alice Springs)

DALJIT NAGRA

'A book I will take with me as my companion everywhere... Beautiful.' (on More for Helen of Troy)

BETTANY HUGHES

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Simon Mundy studied drama at university, but soon veered towards writing poetry and reviews, and at 23 he found himself a music critic and arts journalist. A champion of the arts, he has served as Director of the National Campaign for the Arts and Vice-President of PEN International's Writers for Peace Committee, and he co-founded the European Forum for the Arts and Heritage; he remains an adviser to the European Festivals Association. His writing includes biographies, novels, non-fiction, playscripts and poetry.
