FLAGEY IN WINTER

SIMON MUNDY

- From the pen of an acclaimed writer.
- The sequel to an early Hay Press title, a planned series of linked but nonsequential titles set in a Brussels café.
- Follows the successful relaunch of Hay Press, now an imprint of Renard Press.
- An ode to Europe – will appeal to those who relish their links to the mainland.

The Café Franck in Brussels' Place Flagey puts people at their ease – artists with European politicians and their assistants, tousled intellectuals with bar staff, twenty-somethings in need of a job with thirty-somethings who have one.

Set in 2013, Flagey in Winter is a comedy of manners that takes place in the European Parliament itself, in bars where love and politics rub shoulders, and in the Italian Dolomites.

'Mundy can be cheeky, he can be rueful, but he is always passionate.' (on By Fax to Alice Springs)

DALJIT NAGRA

'A book I will take with me as my companion everywhere... Beautiful.' (on More for Helen of Troy)

BETTANY HUGHES
